Follow Up Supplement

We hope you enjoyed this year's edition!

Baby Quiz. How many did you get?

From left, here's who they are:

Top Row: Henry, Mat, Edward, Emma, Yasmin, Steven and John.

Bottom Row: Clara, Joan, Rosemary, Sofia, William, Anna and Neve.

So in terms of generations: there's all four of the newest, only one of their great-great-grandparents, and two great-grandparents together with their four children and five of theirs. Perhaps one of the tricky areas was that it was not unusual in the nineteenth century for small boys to wear their hair long (and wear a skirt – see below)!

Several of the pictures are details from larger photos, you may enjoy these four originals.

Rudolph's Collar. Yes, you got it, the three links that open have to be all together in one of the pieces of chain, that way when they're opened there's only three pieces of chain left to join together!

Who was the youngest person to solve this one?!
