I am getting on very well at the Foreign Ministry, & they are most helpful. The material is absolutely fascinating. The only thing that wasn't very helpful was shutting me in yesterday lunchtime! The library is closed from 12.30 - 2.30 & at 12.30 I got up to go to lunch & found everyone gone & the door locked. Naturally I didn't want to go without my lunch, so I hunted round till I found a telephone, rang up the porter and sent a man to let me out. He & everyone else seemed to think it a great joke - apparently it happened to the Minister himself once in his office, shut in all night!

Mat is coming this afternoon - I hope the weather will be good, then we can go for picnics. Yesterday there was a great storm here. Lots of love from Joan.
