

Viareggio - Panorama spiaggia e Alpi Apuane

Vigoreggio Thursday morning. 27 Sept.

Pensione Parolini

This is the last card I shall send from our holiday as we shall be home by the Sunday. Yesterday I spent the morning in the Pitti Gallery at Florence, looking at the wonderful collection of Titians, Raphaels, Murillos, etc. We were wondering if the weather would improve sufficiently to allow us to spend the remainder of our holiday at the sea as from Sunday to Tuesday it rained off and on & was overcast. Fortunately it cleared up & we set off by train (2½ hours) to this lovely seaside place a few miles from Pisa. It is backed by mountains & pine trees, & has a superb sandy beach miles long. Today there is a cloudless sky & it is very hot. We have found a nice hotel and are looking forward to a lazy 2 days on the beach. Much love from
