We're in Ravenna now which is not a very nice town except for the old central part. Most of the mosaics are ~~5th~~ 6th & really beautiful. We were dodging from church to church today, cos it was raining on & off.

When we were in Venice we visited the belfry girl, Cristina. She & her mother were really kind & took us round the old part of the Lido of Venice, & gave us lunch & supper.

Hope the weather gets better then we'll go to the coast. Lots of love from Veronika
